Do I need a DBS check to work in a pub?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-06-24 - Comments \(0\) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

Generally no. Standard bar and pub work doesn't require a DBS check by law. However, licensees themselves often require a Basic DBS as part of personal licence applications under the Licensing Act 2003. Some pub groups also run Basic checks as policy.
