What is a bankruptcy order?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-05 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A bankruptcy order is a court order declaring an individual unable to pay their debts. It remains on a credit file for six years and on the public Insolvency Register. Bankruptcy typically disqualifies someone from certain regulated and directorship roles.