What is a directorship check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-12 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A directorship check verifies a candidate's current and historical company directorships using Companies House data. It's used to identify conflicts of interest, undisclosed business interests, or involvement with dissolved or insolvent companies.