What is a liveness check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-13 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A liveness check is a biometric test that confirms a person is physically present at the time of an identity check, rather than using a photograph, video or mask. It typically involves capturing a short video of the candidate performing a natural action.