What is a social media check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-12 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A social media check is a structured review of a candidate's public online presence to identify reputational, safeguarding or regulatory risk. It must be carried out compliantly focusing only on job-relevant risk factors, not protected characteristics.