What is a soft credit check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-05 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A soft credit check is a review of a person's credit file that doesn't affect their credit score and isn't visible to lenders. All legitimate employment credit checks are soft searches — required by UK data protection and lending rules.