What is CCJ on a credit check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-07 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A CCJ (County Court Judgement) is a court order issued when someone owes money and fails to pay. CCJs stay on the public register for six years and will appear on an employment credit check unless satisfied within one month.