What is the difference between a DBS and a credit check?

Ramya Sehmi - 2026-11-06 - Comments (0) - Encyclopedia of screening terms

A DBS check reveals criminal history convictions, cautions and police information. A credit check reveals financial history - CCJs, bankruptcies, IVAs and sanctions. They're completely separate checks used for different compliance purposes.